THE ELECTION FARCE IN ALABAMA

THE WAY THE WHITES AND BLACKS

WHITE KNIGHTS.

Barbour County.—A great many negroes have been sent to the county to Clayton and otherwise punished, and we heard of one instance of a negro making up out of a sick bed and starting for Clayton, although entirely unable to walk. The negro was captured and brought to him that he had better do than to have been fined fifty dollars and otherwise punished. So fully impressed were they with the idea that there was danger to their country that they had to make their escape.

Though you may not be holding at the head of the Republican party, a position which it is difficult to hold, the Committee trust you will fully appreciate the revolution which has been accorded to you; and we will feel obliged by your handing such amount as you may deem consistent with the above for the above purpose.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Special Dispatch to the Louisville Journal.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 22.

Heavy rain. Weather cold and cloudy. Down—Rose Hambleton and Bee. Up—McGill, Paoria City, and J. S. McCane. The Hambleton reports five and a half feet on Phillips's bar. The Marble City is aground at Plum Point.

Advices from Arkansas say that that State is overflowed with freedmen, and that they must go to other States for employment or suffering will ensue. There is considerable sickness among them.

WASHINGTON.

Gen. Grant Denies having Written a Radical Letter.

The Counterfeit 7-30 Question.

Davis to be Tried in November.

A New Conservative Party in New York.

The Cabinet Endorsing Johnson.

An Authorized Denial from the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.

The report that Gen. Grant had written a very radical letter to Dr. Licher, is denied.

The question of the liability of the government for the counterfeiting of the receiver is receiving close attention in the Treasury Department.

Assistant Treasurer Van Dyck, at New York, writes that in all cases the distinct understanding between the party sending in notes and himself is that he is to be paid in bonds for transmission and conversion, and to that effect he requires all parties to endorse the notes, as a means of their identification, so that, if found to be spurious, the caverter will be required to come to the counter with difficulty.

On the other hand, the bankers claim that the payment which Mr. Van Dyck makes when he receives the notes, is a complete transmission, and that the notes are to be considered responsible for the notes after that time just as fully as they (the bankers) would become responsible for a counterfeited received over their own counters.

Dist. Attorney Marshall has notified Charles O'Connor that the Government will proceed to trial with the trial of Jeff. Davis at the session of the United States Circuit Court in Richmond, commencing on the 25th of November, unless postponed by the court or by Davis's counsel.

It is considered certain that the trial will come off. Preparations for his reception are being made by his counsel in Richmond.

Dr. M. S. Seward's mission to New York is to start a new conservative Republican party in that State, to hold the balance of power. The mission had the approval of the President.

Gen. Grant's General Bullard has written a letter strongly endorsing President Johnson. Another member of the Cabinet, accused of opposition to the President, will soon write a similar letter.

The President desires it to be stated that he has no objection to the correspondence of the Post was not authorized by him to say that he would resist impeachment or that he would make no Cabinet removals until after the November election.

The President has directed a reservation for military purpose at Fort Wadsworth, Dakota, covering one hundred and thirty-five square miles.

The Controllers of Currency received all queries relative from the National banks except the First National Bank at Fort Smith, Ark. An abstract condition of the banks, classified by States and cities, will be ready for publication Saturday.

Dr. W. M. Goodloe, of North Carolina, who is here, says there is now no military interference whatever with the proceedings of the Federal courts.

It is expected that Senator Buckalew will tomorrow join Senator Edmunds and Representative Halsey in the investigation of the business transactions of the printing bureau of the Treasury Department.

SOUTH AMERICA.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.

The British steamer Amsterdam, from Malaque for New York, went ashore Sunday night near Montana, and lies among the rocks. Her cargo of fruit, said to have been sold by arrive, is probably insured.

A Buenos Ayres letter of September 14 says Condors had experienced another revolution, but it was promptly quelled.

The Minister of Foreign Relations for the Argentine Republic has resigned on account of the admitted impossibility of defeating the Paraguays.

Gen. Sheridan, United States Minister, is still very low.

The Presidential election takes place in January, and the most influential paper in the country has nominated Sarantonio to be Senator and Minister at Washington for the present.

Advices from Peru to the end of September state that the city of Arquipa is entirely in the hands of the revolutionaries, and is holding fort. Their programs are to overthrow the administration of Prados, and the restitution of the constitution of 1854, reformed in 1860, and the recognition of Col. Ernesto as constitutional head of the republic. The clergy, police, troops in and around Arquipa are said to be in favor of the revolutionaries.

The loyalty to Prados of Gen. Bastardo, who has been sent to suppress the movement, is not known. Arrests have been made at Lima of suspected persons, and the opinion is gaining ground that Prados are days numbered.

Railroad Collision.

Oct. 22.

A collision occurred about 8 o'clock last night on the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, two miles west of Dixon, Ill., between the train bound for Oglethorpe and the locomotive. The locomotives of both trains were demolished. Six persons were injured; none fatally. The collision was caused by a misleader standing on the part of the conductor of the freight train.

Grand Meeting in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

Numerous wall meetings in favor of the Grand movement were held yesterday night.

At one of them Judge Kelly made a speech fully indorsing the proposed nomination, and asserting that Grant, politically, was in full accord with the same.

TENNESSEE AFFAIRS.

BROWNSVILLE to be the Next Senator—A Major Assailed—Racine.

NASHVILLE, October 22.

Three ballots were had to-day in the Senate and two in the House of Representatives, with a full vote in the office, with a full address in reply to the welcome by Gen. Richmond. At Warren Governor Burbridge introduced Sheridan to the people, and he responded in a few words similar to those of the conductor of the train that reached Providence at 11 o'clock.

The General was met at the depot by a committee of the City Council, the chairman of which delivered an address, to which Sheridan replied. He was not badly hurt.

He had a full meeting on the Association Course commended to-day. There were three races. The first was a sweepstakes for two years old, one mile dash, which was won by Johnson & Douglas's Richey, beating Turner & Johnson's Crysant. The second, a stake of three years old, was won by Turner & Johnson's filly, Magpie Hunter, Dimples, and a colt by Blawdwick; time, 1:51 1/2; 1:52 1/2; 1:53 1/2.

The third, a mile and a half, was won by Johnson & Douglas's Magpie Hunter, and the Grand Army of the Republic, the last forming a guard of honor. Sheridan subsequently reviewed the troops.

The parade was probably the finest military demonstration ever given in the State. The city was crowded with people from the country towns. Sheridan received floral and vocal tributes all along the line of march. The streets were decorated with flags, mottoes, &c.

This afternoon Sheridan visited Narragansett Park, where the October races commenced to-day.

PORLTAND, Oct. 22.

The City Council has tenured the hospitalities of the city to Gen. Sheridan, who is expected there next week.

The 28th of November is appointed as Thanksgiving Day in Maine.
